ADVENTUROUS TRAINING INSTRUCTOR ALLOWANCE

STATEMENT

On 11 September 2007 the Tribunal visited the Adventure Training Wing (ATW) of Army Recruit Training Centre, Kapooka to inspect the work of the Adventurous Training Instructors.

The ADF and the Commonwealth provided a joint review of Adventurous Training Instructor Allowance.

Having observed the work of the Adventurous Training Instructors and considered the material submitted and with the benefit of discussions with the parties we have decided that the current structure should continue as sought with no change to the tier or quanta of the allowance.

The date of effect of our decision shall be on and from the date of the inspection 11 September 2007.

The current determination continues in force.
